Miller & Rhoads.

"Just Charmed With Such Values"

And other similar exclamations of delight, evidenced by the most enthusiastic buying, were heard on all sides yesterday from the throngs of people-women especially-who attended the

Our 27th Annual Summer Clearance Sale

For economists-people who know and appreciate REAL BARGAINS-it is one of the most interesting seling events that Richmonders have ever seen.

Also, it is a sale that requires but little in the way of newspaper publicity to insure its success; for it is known in advance to include THE MERCHANDISE THAT PEOPLE WANT, and at such EXTRAORDINARY LOW PRICES, will "sell itself," once the various lots of goods on display are seen and

De Sure to Visit the Store

-To-day, To-morrow-every day while the sale is on. MILLER & RHOADS.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY GETS INJUNCTION against the Southern Railway ie purpose of acquiring by condemnation the property in question either by means of the action now pending in ern Railway sets up the plea that as the property in question is already ap

LAZOSKI ARRESTED FOR STABBING CHARLIE propriated to, and necessary for, the discharge of a public use, it cannot be Necessary to Road's Welfare. "The property," according to t Fouthern Railway's petition, "forms necessary and useful part of the peti-tioner's yards in Richmond, is part of a tract covered by tracks and other necessary improvements, and that part of it not now occupied is necessary and essential to the needed enlarge-

Proceedings for the condemnation of the property in question, as well as lands held by a dozen or more companies and individuals, were authorized on May 6 by the Mayor's signature to a joint resolution directing the City Attorney to secure the property needed for widening the northern approach to the new Mayo Bridge.

In conformity with the Council resolution, it is proposed to widen Fifteent Street from Main Street to a point approximately eighty-five feet south of the south line of Dock Street to a uniform width of eighty-five feet, and to widen Fourteenth Street, on its to widen Fourteenth Street, on its west side from the north line of the dock southwardly to the bridge, to a uniform width of eighty feet.

May Delay City Plans.

ay from Judge Crump, of the Law named a commission of five, which will define Court, restraining the city meet on the property on July 17 at 4 of the land wanted by the city. The commissioners are O. A. Hawkins, E. A. Catlin, Thomas D. Newell, S. T. Bever-

WANTS BETTER STATION

tution of a new suit.

Denies City's Right.

The case offers the first instance, it is believed, in which the city is restrained by a court order from putting into practice the condemnation right secured to it under its charter. The charter expressly asserts the city's right to condemn for public uses privately owned property.

In the bills-of-se-sublaint the Southern Railway and Joseph Stebbins for the town of South Boston. After the evidence had been fully heard the case was submitted without argument, and the consider. Mr. Stebbins prosperity of South Boston. After the evidence had been fully heard the case was submitted without argument, and the consider. Mr. Stebbins prosperity of South Boston. After the evidence had been fully heard the case was submitted without argument, and the constitution of the town of South Boston. After the evidence had been fully heard the case was submitted without argument, and the constitution of the town of South Boston, or the Southern Railway, and Joseph Stebbins for the town of South Boston, or the Southern Railway, and Joseph Stebbins for the town of South Boston, or the Southern Railway, and Joseph Stebbins for the town of South Boston, or the Southern Railway, and Joseph Stebbins for the town of South Boston, or the Southern Railway, and Joseph Stebbins for the town of South Boston, or the Southern Railway, and Joseph Stebbins for the town of South Boston, or the southern Railway, and Joseph Stebbins for the town of South Boston, or the town of South Boston,

STABBING CHARLIE DASCON

Ephriam Lazoski was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detective Way mack and officer Mitchell as the man who stabbed Charlie Dascon during a drinking bout in an Eighteenth Street house late Monday night. Through an interpreter, Lazoski protests his tonocence, and declares that he was too drunk to say who actually stabbed. Dascon was whited when he became enraged and began choking every one in reach. At the City Hospital it was said last night that Dascon was making good progress and will probably recover. He was stabbed in the left breast, near the heart.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage Licenses were issued yesterday by the left breast, near the heart.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage Licenses were issued yesterday by the left breast, near the heart.

Marriage Licenses were issued yesterday by the left breast, near the heart.

Marriage Licenses were issued yesterday to the following: Henry Dare Mofflit and Lillie Mary Holzback and James A. Fisher and Frances I. Boyden.

Stewart Hanckel and Sophia Schaill. Eemile

Contact over the previous year. There was the was the was an increase on real estate valuations due to improvements in the proporters in the nanount of tangible personal property cent in the amount of tangible personal in the amount of tangible personal property returned for taxation.

Judge Southall Designated.

Judge Robert G. Southall was designated by Governor Mann yesterday to hold the July term of court in Prince Edward County for Judge George J. Hundley.

Marriage Licenses were issued yesterday to hold the July term of court in Prince Edward County for Judge George J. Hundley.

Marriage Licenses were issued yesterday to hold the July term of court in Prince Edward County for Judge George J. Mrs. Leroy Hutzler, accompanied by visit of two weeks in New York. The visit of two weeks in New York. The visit of two weeks in New York. The visit of two weeks in New York and visit to relatives at Greendale.

Mrs. Leroy Hutzler, accompanied by visit of two weeks in New York taken for another wholly inconsistent public use unless such power has been expressly conferred upon the city by legislative enactment.

Ephriam Lazoski was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detective Waymack and officer Mitchell as the man who stabbed Charlie Inscend during a drinking bout in an Eighteenth Street repressly conterred upon the city by the stabled Charlie Pascen during a drinking bout in an Eighteenth Street. The city of Richmond, the railroad house late Monday might. Through an company contends, has never been by interpreter, Lazoski protests his time-legislative enactment either expressly cence, and declares that he was too power of eminent domain for the taking of public property in the manner proposed in the proceedings pending in the Hustings Court.

Necessary to the taking court of the taking of public property in the manner proposed in the proceedings pending in the Hustings Court.

ldectises to marry were issued yesterday by the clerk of the Histings Court to J Stewart Hamelet and Sephia Schall: Henrich E. Statz and Margaret Mac Taylor, honor

SLIT SKIRT LED

Major Werner Gets Warrant for Woman Who Wore It in Broad Street.

Blossom Browning, a young white woman, was arrested yesterday in broad Street on a warrant sworn out by Chief of Police Werner for wearing May Delay City Plans.

From the viewpoint of public convenience, the litigation comes at a most inopportune time. The new bridge, it is expected, will be thrown open for traffic on September 1, and its usefulness will be greatly impaired by an inadequate approach on the north side of the river. Regardless of whether or not the injunction will be supported by the courts, the Southern Railway.

CAVINGS

AND Street on a warrant sworn out by Chief of Police Worner for wearing a sit skirt. Somebody telephoned the Chief that the new-langled garment was attracting a great deal of attention and suggested that an officer be start to the scene, as a crowd was gathering. On his way out Major Werner stopped by Mayor Ainslie's office, and as the Mayor was leaving for luncheon, by the courts, the Southern Railway cutlandish that Major Werner, after questioning the woman, hurried back to his office and swore out a warrant for her arrest. It was served by Policeman A. M. Smith, who found the warer at Ninth and Broad and put her under arrest. She was bailed for appearance in Police Court this morn-

What Justice Crutchfield may have o say about the case may make a hapter of its own, for he is not strong explained that there was something wrong with the skirt. There wasn't any doubt about that. It was too sur-row for comfortable wearing, though it was cut in the regulation society fashion except for the slash, which was

'SEPTEMBER MORN'

Bathing Girl Can't Go Into Window Display.

Exhibiting Prints of Chabas Painting.

and brought to America to be exhibited in the New York international exhibition. It took the gold medal at the Paris Salon, and was bought for a fabulance that the property of the salon in the salon i fabulous price by a Russian grand declaration of war on Chabas's trembling little girl was filed by the purists when prints were first placed on exhibit in the art store windows of New York. Anthony Comstock, who has arrogated to himself the office of censor of public morals of the metropolis, immediately denounced the creation as an indecent show of the nude Attempts to Block City's Effort to Widen Fourteenth Street.

MAY DELAY CONDEMNATION

MAY DELAY CONDEMN

Company Asserts That Property is Already Dedicated to Public Use.

Public Use.

Condemnation proceedings begun yesterday in the Hustings Court of the purpose of acquiring certain strips of land on Fourteehith Street to be used in widening that thoroughfare from Main Street to the new Mayo Bridge, met their first check in the form of an injunction secured by the Southern Rail-publed of the state Corporation and is endowed by its charter with power to exercise the right of public domain for public uses. The injunction temporarily, at lenst, halts the proceedings against the Southern Railway, but the proceedings strips of the charter with power to exercise the right of public domain for public uses. The injunction temporarily, at lenst, halts the proceedings against the Southern Railway, but the proceedings against the prints more prominence.

Hind Geod Renson.

Aside from his views as to the Werner's refusal was more on the substantial grounds that such an exhibition of the unclad figure of a girl is not at all to be desired in a city with a colored population of 40,000. He is supported in his course by Mayor Ainstie and other city of Eighty Per Cent.

The record for increasing the assessment on intangible personal property goes to E. J. Harrison, commissioner of the revenue for the Second District of Cumberland County, His report, submitted to State Auditor C. Lee Moore yesterday, shows an increase in this class of subjects of taxation of 80 per cent over the previous year. There was a 4 per cent increase on real estate valuations due to improvements made, and an increase of 17 per cent in the amount of tangible personal property returned for taxation.

Building permits were issued yesterday as Building permits were issued yearday as follows:

A. J. Winfree, to repair frame dwelling on the north side of Decadur Street between Nineteenth and Twentieth Streets, South Richmond, at a cost of $125.

O. D. Hogan, to repair a frame store on the east side of Third Street between trace and Broad Streets, at a cost of $2.500.

Commonwealth Club, to install repairs at the clubhouse on Franklin Street, to cost the dward Bruce, visiting the street of the street o (ity of Richmond, to erect a blacksmith shor on the east side of Elm Street between Poplar and Lester Streets, at a cost of $200, J. N. Upshur, to build a detached brick stable in the rear of the residence at 103 West Franklin Street, to cost $2,100.

The Only Fortune-Teller

We ever heard of who did any REAL GOOD was one who four years ago warned a young lady depositor of our bank that she would soon have a serious illness and reverses. This prophecy made the young lady THINK, and immediately she began to save a regular sum from her weekly salary (not that she attached any special value to the words of the fortune-teller, but she began to think of the many things she MIGHT need money for in the future). We are glad to say that the "bad luck" was all a myth, but the very substantial account she has built up

American National Bank

OF RICHMOND, VIRGINIA,

is a REALTY whose value is growing every day. We can safeguard YOU against many disagreeable probabilities which the future MIGHT hold if you were not thus prepared. Prophecy for YOUR future CERTAIN

SECURITY AND SERVICE.

in the Savings Department of the

CARDS STACKED BY FORTUNE TELLER

Werner Tells Art Dealers Little Went Into "Trance," and Mrs. Husband Calls Officer and Daniels Gets Back Her Diamond Ring.

Dealers Asked Permission Before Charged Now With Grand Lar- Mrs. Aloi Despondent for Fear ceny, With No Chance to

Although officially admitted to be a With the assistance of a Marshall work of art, Paul Chabas's celebrated Street clairvoyant and a piece of detec- from her husband and reported efforts September Morn" girl has been or- tive work a la mode, Mrs. J. W. to take her three-year-old daughter "September Morn" girl has been or- live work a in mearthing the dered withdrawn from exhibition in Daniels succeeded in unearthing the from her, Mrs. Frank Aloi, of 216 Coroner's Jury Says Death of File Petition Asking That Hinton edict was promulgated yesterday in girl to the police of the Second Station ing a two-ounce bottle of carbolic acid reply to a petition from local art deal- last night. Incidentally, the amateur rs that they be given permission to detective recovered her ring through

In their front windows.

This painting by the famous French artist, which has aroused a storm of criticism and protest in many cities in which prints of it have been offered for sale, represents the nude figure of a girl in her carry teens shivering ankie deep in the water of a take at daybreak of a September morning.

From the artistic standpoint, the canvas is a masterpiece. It was received with acclamations wherever shown, and brought to America to be exhibit to the missing brilliant. Quite tasually she mentioned this circumtion of her missing brilliant. Quite casually she mentioned this circumstance to her maid. Elia Johnson, colored, not having the slightest doubt of Ella's intrinsic honesty.

Walked Into Trap.

more worried she became, until finally she told the cook that if a letter should the cook must save the letter for the maid. The cook went forthwith to Mrs. Daniels with the story.

a Marshall Street clairvoyant and unfolded a scheme whereby the palm reader was to turn her pull with the unseen spirits to financial profit. The for a month. Several days ago he was same day the clairvoyant wrote a letter the first palman and told her that the stars had something important the stars had something important to stars had something important to communicate, and that she must appear in the clairvoyant's sanctum at the mystical hour of midnight. Ella fell like a rock.

At the appointed hour she called

At the appointed hour she called

His wife told the police that she has Diamond Reappears.

The next morning the diamond ring reappeared on Mrs. Daniels's dressing table in a mysterious manner. Without taking the trouble to enter into details, Mrs. Daniels told Ella a few days later that while she was an invaluable maid, a gem of a servant, and worth her weight in gold, she roally did not need a second servant and must a message from his wife last night to let her go with inexpressible sorrow, the effect that he could come and have Ella went, but in some way she caught a glimpse behind the scenes and understood that the cards had been stack. derstood that the cards had been stack previously decided not to press the theft charge against the maid, Mrs. Daniels determined that the events of yesterday justified her in breaking her resolve, and she issued a warrant charging the maid with a summer. The stated that she would immediately purchase another than the high mark of Monday. Despite a humidity record of $0, which house to save her from herself. charging the maid with grand larceny.

Personal Mention.

Miss Aline Redford, of Porter Street, and Miss Mabel McDaniel, of Clifton Forge, chaperoned by Mrs. L. B. Lloyd, will leave this morning for Ocean View, where they will spend two weeks at Negro Fined for Assault.

On a charge of felonious assault, Fellx Winston, colored, was fined $10 and costs and put under $100 bond yes-terday by Magistrate H. S. Sunday, of

To Attend Gas Convention.

Howard Bruce, vice-president and general manager of Bartlett, Hayward Company, of Baltimore, will attend the American Gas institute Convention here in October. Millaruce, who is regarded as a gas expert, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Bruce, of Richmond.

Hurries Home in Time to Prevent Suicide.

FORMALLY DENIES REQUEST SERVANT GIRL IS ARRESTED POISON DASHED TO FLOOR

Child Would Be Taken by Father.

She was only prevented from doing so by Patrolman Hart, who took the bot-tle from her hand by force. Not dar-During the early part of June, Mrs. ing to leave the frantic woman alone, the officer took her to the First Police Station, in company with her husband. After the sergeants had talked with her for two hours, she was placed in the keeping of her brother, with orders that a strict watch be kept on her Husband Stood Near-By.

In the sergeant's office she broke down and wept bitterly, placing her arms about her little child's shoulders. Her husband, from whom she is sep-arated, stood a few yards away in the main room and pleaded with the officers not to leave his daughter in the mother's keeping, fearing that, in her Ella, however, meditated over the let-ter, and the longer she meditated the herself and the child as well. When first brought to the station, Mrs. Aloi was very morose and moody, remaining taciturn under the kind offices of was very morose and moody, remaining taciturn under the kind offices of the cook must save the letter for the the police. After she had wept and talked with her brother, her despondency seemed to lift, and it was thought safe to allow her to go home.

At the appointed hour she called upon the Marshall Street secress, and with appropriate ceremonial, the fortune teller spread out the cards—upon the table and went into a trance. She came to with surprising suddenness and looked sharply at Ella.

"The cards tell me that you have Mrs. Daniels's diamond ring," said the clair-veyant in a sepulchral tone. "You must return it at once."

His wife told the police that she has worked continually since her marriage to Aloi and that she and her child have been supported solely by her own efforts. Her husband deserted her without cause, the vistus, and will be made to contribute toward her support by Justice Crutchfield. Since the separation from her husband, she has been living with her brother's family and earning her own livelihood. Her story was corroborated in essentials by her was corroborated in essentials by he by Mayor Ainstie and other city ofneials. The painting has been passed upon by the United States postal authorities and admitted to the mails as a work of art. The Richmond officials do not question the painting's title to a masterpiece of brush work; they distrust its effect upon disordered minds.

SHOWS BIG GAIN

So yesterday she showed up at Mrs.

Samile's back door and began to pay not compliments to the cook. The conthe point of taking the fatal drug.

When Hart attempted to restrain her, she broke from his grasp and fled through the house. He finally overtook her in the bathroom and wrested through the house. He finally overtook her in the bathroom and wrested the two-ounce bottle from her hand forthwith and returned with the gullen forthwi and taking him along.

caping Negro and Is Hurt in Struggle.

After a hand-to-hand fight yesterday in a corner of Kelly's Alley, in Jackson Ward, Detective-Sergeant Krengel suc-ceeded in capturing Francis Field, the convict who escaped from a Chester-field road camp last Saturday morning. During the fight the detective was badly bitten in the forearm by the negro and had the wound causterized by a physician as a precautionary measure. Field was taken to the Second Police oad camp guards as soon as they ar-

Detective Krengel has not entirely recovered from the effect of several serious operations which were performand could not exert his full physical several colored men who came to the officer's rescue, it is probable that Krengel would have been forced to shoot Field to prevent his getaway.

Horse Recovered.
Francis Field, a colored convict trusty with only a few days more of a short term to serve, made his escape from a road camp near Chester on last Saturday morning by means of the young horse and jumper belonging to a camp guard. He was reported to have come toward Richmond, and on Monday afternoon Detective Waymack located the guard's horse and jumper in the possession of a colored family at 106 East Sixteenth Street, South Richmond, in whose care the team had been left by Field on Saturday night. The reward of $25 which the guard offered for the recovery of his horse was paid to the Sixteenth Street family. A reward of $10 will be given for the capture of the convict.

It will be left to the discretion of the Chesterfield County authorities whe-ther or not Field will be tried on the charge of horse stealing and sent to the penitentiary. He may be returned to the convict camp and made to complete his term, with the added penalt, for his escape, and never be forced t stand trial for the theft of the hors

We Believe

we have more Linen Crash, Panama Cloth, Miami Cloth and other lightweight Suits, in more sizes and more shapes, than any other store in Richmond. If you are uncomfortable,

Gans-Rady Company

NECK BROKEN BY CREDITORS SEEK FOUR-FOOT FALL

James A. Browning Resulted From Accidental Causes.

An investigation into the death of

An investigation into the death of James A. Browning, twenty-five years old, of 1127 Dance Street, was held yesterday afternoon at Bennett's undertaking establishment. After a thorough examination of half a dozen witnesses, a verdict of accidental death was returned by the coroner's jury. The inquest was conducted by Dr. J. Fulmer Bright, acting coroner of Henrico County, assisted by Commonwealth's Attorney Frank T. Sutton, Jr. Browning, it was determined, came to his death by a four-foot fall from the porch of the Rio Vista Social Club, on James River, near Westhampton, where, with three companions, he had spent Monday night. His body was found at sunrise yesterday morning by William Forbes, one of the party, on the ground below the clubhouse in porch. The neck had been broken by the fall, and the face badly mutilated. Death was instantaneous.

The house party retired at 2:30 A note for $30.000 held by Lyon & Mon-The house party retired at 2:30 A four feet, but Browning evidently hit ruptcy by paying is the ground head first, which broke to other creditors.

A. Wells Be Adjudged a Bankrupt.

The house party retired at 2:39 A. M., three sleeping on the porch and the other inside the building. The supposition is that Browning had either got up before the others and stepped off or rolled off the porch in his sleep. The fall could not have been more than four fact but Browning evidently hit.

discovered on his body.

Browning was the son of the late Robert Browning, for many years a member of the Henrico County Hoard

The actish was brought by Dr. J. F.
Ragland, Jr., claim for professional services, $52.50, with interest; J. B.
Truchart, claim evidenced by three negotiable notes, $315, and interest; and of Supervisors. He is survived by several brothers. The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, but the services will probably be held this afternoon.

Solution in voluntary bankruptey Sues for $2,367.

The Law and Equity Court yesterday was filed yesterday by Robert Madison Weatherford, a railroad fireman, living at victoria, Lunenburg County, His liabilities are fixed at $554.68, scattered out of a real estate deal. The trial will be assets are

MERCURY SHRINKS

but Weather Stays

perature of the day. The tenth day, sult, a straw hat and black lace shoes, it appears, was yesterday. The Pan-ama Exposition city reported a maximum of 64, to Calgary's high mark of

WANTS PARTY PLATFORM

WANTS PARTY PLATFORM

Goochland County Chairman Cults
Mans-Meeting for Saturday.

A mass-meeting of the Democrats of Goochland County will be held on Saturday/at 1 o'clock at Goochland Court. House, D. B. Harris, president of the Wilson-Marshall-Montague Club, of Goochland County in 1912, and of the Wilson-Marshall-Montague Club, of Goochland County in 1912, and of the Bryan-Kern-Lamb Club of 1908, states that the meeting is called to further the election of those candidates for State office best suited to the offices for which they aspire, and also to draw up a party platform.

Among the items that Mr. Harris will suggest as sections of the Democratic platform of the people of Goochland County are the enactment of an antitrust and antimonopoly statute; as statute similar to the bank guarantee if law of Oklahoma; a law to require all dogs to be muzzled for five years; a provision that all money derived from tax on dogs be devoted to providing Pasteur treatment for persons bitten by dogs, and if any remain that it be applied to reimburse owners for sheep destroyed by dogs; a good law to protect game, fish and insectivorous birds: that the parcel post scrivice be placed on the same plane of efficiency as the most advanced nations of the world, and that the bill for Philippine independence, introduced into Congress by Congressman William A. Jones, be chaacted into law.

Rush Orders

are handled as such. Rushave precedence over a complete stock and autoclivery make this feature of complete stock and autoc

G. M. Co.'s Pearl I. C. (Re-dipped)

Roofing Tin

It's the standard by which other roofing tins are measured.

Gordon Metal Co. 14th and Docks Sts., Richmond, Va.

Rises Later to Maximum of 92, Missing From Home Since Saturday, and Friends Fear

bottle of the poison and end her life, so the officer took her to the station house to save her from herself, so the officer took her to the station house to save her from herself, so the officer took her to the station house to save her from herself, some his life, it was reported to the police that wash may have taken his life, it was reported to the police that wash may have taken his life, it was reported to the police that wash may have taken his life, it was reported to drink at times, and life, it is thought possible that Wash may have taken his life, it was reported to drink at times, and life, it was reported to drink at times, and life, it was reported to drink at wash may have taken his life, it was reported to drink at wash may have taken his life, it is thought be was addicted to drin lookout for a man answering this description.

are handled as such. Rush orders have precedence over all others. Complete stock and auto-truck delivery make this feature of our ser-Put us to the test with your next

McGraw-Yarbrough Co. WHOLESALE PLUMBING SUPPLIES, 122 South Eighth Street.

61 New Phone 62

Crash and Panama Suits laundered in the "know

> Men's Suits50c Ladies' Suits60c

The Royal Laundry Phones: Monroe 1958 and 1959,

UNITED STATES DEPOSITORY FOR POSTAL SAVINGS FUNDS